

The Crittenden Record.

VOLUME 2.

MARION, CRITTENDEN COUNTY, KY., AUGUST 18, 1905

NUMBER 6

THE FARMERS ORGANIZE CLUB

On Monday Afternoon at the Court House.

FIFTY CHARTER MEMBERS

Assistant Commissioner R. C. Crenshaw Made an Address and Helped to Organize.

MEETS FIRST MONDAY IN EACH MONTH

Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock the Crittenden county farmers met at the court house and organized a farmers' club with fifty charter members. The organization of such a club in the county had been agitated for some time, the state department joining in the movement, it was soon set on foot with the result of the effected organization Monday.

Mr. R. C. Crenshaw, assistant commissioner of agriculture of Kentucky was here to effect the organization. He made a very interesting speech to the farmers in which he explained that there was as much art in farming as in any other vocation, and that farmers should study to make the best profit out of the smallest amount of land and labor.

He advised the enriching of run-down lands, the study and practice of horticulture and the raising of cattle, sheep and mules in this, one of the finest districts for that purpose in the state of Kentucky.

He explained at length, the nutritive qualities of alfalfa, the best and cheapest feed for stock of all kinds raised on the farm. Alfalfa, he said, was an old product having been used centuries ago in the old world by the Roman cavalry.

Mr. Crenshaw's talk was short and to the point and carried conviction to its hearers. At the close of the meeting the following fifty names were subscribed as charter members.

J. H. Thompson, H. Rankin, H. Paris, Wm. Hughes, W. N. Rochester, F. E. Davidson, R. E. Holloman, P. C. Stephens, Lester Terry, Wm. Condit, W. R. Lanham, M. Dean, P. W. Bryant, Frank Conner, Joe M. Dean, J. E. Sullenger, J. W. Blue, Joe Dean, Wm. Adams, Jr., Myron Frisbee, Herkiah Hughes, Wheeler, Marion, J. J. Hicks, Ira Bradburn, R. L. Howerton, J. E. Stephens, B. L. Nichols, G. W. Howerton, J. H. Stanley, W. C. Stanley, Repton, T. W. Davenport, B. C. Howard, D. N. Wiley, C. W. Fox, A. B. Childress, G. H. Brown, W. H. Cardin, A. H. Cardin, View T. P. Campbell, Dycusburg, J. S. Newcom, Weston John Hodges, Frances C. S. Jackson, H. C. Rice, Jr., Kelsey, J. H. Bruster, W. H. Brown, W. C. Tyner, Salem, W. J. Hodges, Iron Hill, E. L. Munro, Rodney, Ed Cook, J. B. Hughes, Fords Perry, A. J. Hughes, Tolm.

OLD HICKORY DISTILLERY MAY START AUGUST 28.

Preparations to That End Are Now Being Made.

Thornton Lowery, of Madisonville, has been in the city several days getting the "Old Hickory" distillery in shape for running.

Fred Hippie who was here and purchased the plant some time ago, has also been here recently. These gentlemen will soon have the distillery ready for operation, and informed a Record correspondent that if possible they would begin operation the 28th day of the present month. Mr. Lowery has rented a residence and removed here. His family is now visiting relatives at Crofton, but will arrive in a few days. Mr. Lowery will have charge of the distillery and will have two experienced employees who will also remove here with their families.

COUNTY VISITED BY ANGEL OF DEATH

And Several of Our Citizens Taken In Their Reward.

WILLIAM H. WOLF.

William H. Wolf, aged 80 years, died Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock at his farm in the eastern part of the county. Cancer and old age caused his death. He was one of the oldest and most prosperous farmers of that section of the county. He moved to that vicinity fifty years ago from Caldwell county and for many years owned and operated the old water mill at Iron Bridge, almost the first mill in Crittenden county. He leaves a large family of sons and daughters, his wife having died several years ago.

He was a devout Christian and a member of the Baptist church. Funeral services were conducted yesterday at Olive Branch grave yard on his farm.

W. M. HURST.

Quite a sad coincidence in connection with the death of Mr. Wolf was the death of W. M. Hurst, a son-in-law of Mr. Wolf, and who died about an hour later, of typhoid fever. He was 26 years of age and leaves a wife and several small children.

At the time of his death he lived on the Berry House farm which he purchased some time ago.

He was interred at Olive Branch yesterday.

MRS. W. E. DIXON.

Mrs. W. E. Dixon died Thursday morning at 11 o'clock at her home in Carrawville. She was born in Tennessee in 1829 but moved to this county while yet a girl. She was married twice, the first time to A. T. Scott who lived only a few years after. One child survives her from that marriage, Mrs. W. S. Hamby, of Durant, I. T. In 1865 she was married to W. E. Dixon who yet survives her. Two children of this marriage also survive her, Mrs. Henry Hill and Miss Nannie Dixon, both residing at Carrawville.

Mrs. Dixon was 76 years of age, loved and honored by all who knew her for her many womanly qualities.

Mr. and Mrs. Dixon resided in this county many years before removing to Carrawville, Livingston county, where they had since resided. She was buried at Piney Fork Friday.

MRS. W. B. HINKLEY.

Mrs. W. B. Hinkley died at her home in View Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, of typhoid fever.

She was 33 years of age, a devout Christian and a devoted wife and mother. She leaves a husband and eight children.

She was interred at Sisco Chapel Sunday afternoon.

You are entitled to the best your money can buy. That's what we give you every time.

C. B. LOVDY.

Fredonia, Ky.

VICTOR G. KEE, Principal Marion Graded Schools.

CATALOG OF MARION GRADED SCHOOLS OUT.

School and Mining Industries Beneficent Factors to Our City.

The new catalog of the Marion Graded Schools has been issued and embodies some new features and some important advances over previous issues as is customary with all schools which keep abreast of the times, and rapid march of progress along educational lines.

The catalog is being mailed this week to the public generally, and to interested students, past and prospective, in particular.

The school is the chief factor in the greatness and importance of town, county and state.

At present there are two principal factors operating to make the city of Marion an attractive business center—the public schools and the mining interests of the district.

All other commercial interests and industries are dependent upon and subservient to these two prime factors.

The people of Marion and Crittenden county and even the people of adjoining counties fully realize this fact, but its emphasis will probably increase their appreciation of it.

The reputation of Marion Graded Schools has been too long established to admit of any question of efficiency at this time and with the retention of practically the same faculty as heretofore, there should be no apprehension felt that the change of principals will have any material effect, especially since so wise a selection has been made in choosing Prof. Victor G. Kee to succeed Prof. Evans.

Prof. Kee comes to Marion highly recommended, but aside from this he is a man who recommends himself to all who make his acquaintance, by his evident command of language, complete grasp of educational subjects and features, and above all, his energy and enterprise.

The school season of 1905-6 begins September 18 and closes January 12.

The Louisville-Herald says:

Stop talking for a while about Kentucky's productive soil, inviting climate; yea, of her beautiful women, her fine horses, her superb vineyards and luxurious crops of all kinds. Better than soil, climate and crops are men and women, not merely brave and beautiful, but cultured, refined, soulful and humane. Such men and women we cannot have without schools.

Why is there a Breathitt in Kentucky? Poor schools or none.

MARION AN APPLICANT FOR METHODIST COLLEGE

The Question of Selecting Site Not to be Considered at Lexington.

As has been reported in various papers of the State, the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal church which meets in Lexington September 29 will not take up at that time the question of selecting the site in Western Kentucky for the college, but when the matter is taken up, Marion will be considered. In response to a letter from the secretary of the Commercial club here setting forth the advantages of Marion as a possible site for the location of such a college, Secretary C. H. Nordeman, of the Board of Education of that church, writes:

"Your letter of the 11th inst. to hand and noted. As secretary of the Board of Education of the Kentucky Annual Conference of the M. E. church, I beg to advise that sometime in the future our Board will probably establish a school somewhere in Western Kentucky but we do not know when, and the matter, I am sure, will not be taken up at our next meeting on September 29th at Lexington, Ky., but when we do take the matter up, a committee of our Board will be appointed to examine feasible sites, etc.

Your letter will be kept on file and at that time we will correspond with you further about the matter.

Very truly yours,
C. H. NORDEMAN, Sec'y.

CONSTANTLY IMPROVING

Is This Western Kentucky Gateway

A CENTER OF INDUSTRY

Excellent Schools, Energy, Push and Mines the Basis and Buildings Are Rapidly Going Up.

NEW HOMES ARE BEGUN EACH WEEK

Bennett Walker has just completed a barn in the rear of his lot on Gum street in the Blackburn-Weldon subdivision. Mr. Walker is also making preparations to begin the erection of a cottage frame residence in the near future. The building will be completed in the fall. Mr. Walker's lot adjoins on the west the lot on which Dr. A. J. Driskill is building his handsome residence.

—00—

William Ackridge has just about completed for Henry Moore a five or six room frame cottage residence. This building, which is conveniently and appropriately designed, is situated on one of the most desirable lots in the Blackburn-Weldon addition. It is on the corner lot opposite the property of Mrs. L. A. Welden. Several shade trees stand in the yard, which give the place a pleasant and attractive appearance in the foreground.

—00—

The brick work on the Yandell & Orme hotel proper was completed this week and the foundation for the kitchen and dining room ell in the rear, was begun.

—00—

Jurgenmeier and his crew are busy laying the brick work on the Haynes & Taylor warehouse to be erected in the rear of their new stand in the postoffice building on Hank street. Messrs. Haynes & Taylor will have one of the most desirable localities for a drug store in the city. It will be just one door west of the post-office.

—00—

The brick work on the new postoffice building was completed this week and the carpenters are now pushing the wood work. The roof is on and the floors are being laid. The work on this building which has heretofore been delayed, will now be advanced and Contractor McGraw will likely be able to turn the completed job over some time before the Marion bank is finished.

—00—

Timbers for the Masonic building which were ordered from the South, have not yet arrived, and on account of the yellow fever situation, the arrival of the timbers is somewhat indefinite.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

Which Is to be Voted on at the Coming November Election.

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 15, 1905.—Secretary of State H. V. McChesney is making the official publication of the proposed amendment to the Constitution of Kentucky changing the manner of voting from the present secret ballot system to the old-time viva voce system to be voted on at the coming regular election to be held November 7.

The act submitting the proposed amendment to the voters of the State was passed at the 1904 session of the Legislature and became a law, June 14, 1904.

The amendment provides that all elections shall be viva voce and made a matter of public record by the officers of election, and the first General Assembly held after the adoption of the amendment shall pass all necessary laws to enforce this provision.

Marion Graded School Building showing new $5,000 Chapel Addition to the right.

Hog for Sale.

I will on Tuesday, August 22, 1905, at 2 o'clock p. m., at my residence on East Belleville street, known as the John Clark property, sell for cash in hand to the highest and best bidder the following described hog: One black sow, swallow fork in right ear, weight about 150 pounds, to pay impounding and feeding same, if not called for by owner.

A. S. CANNAN, City marshal and poundmaster.

Horses for Sale.

Sorrel mare, twelve years old, gentle and splendid family horse, safe for woman and children to handle. Also a bay horse, sixteen hands high, eleven years old, no blemish and a good buggy horse. Will work anywhere. One or both can be bought cheap for cash. For further information call on or address

W. H. ENOCH, Marion, Ky.

Kentucky Patents

Granted this week. Reported by C. A. Shaw & Co., Patent Attorney Washington, D. C. Jacob F. Leanhart, Louisville, Watercloset. Donald McDonald, Louisville, Making gas. Ambrose Ridd, Newport, Manufacturing planished sheet metal. Andrew Winter, West Covington, Water-heater. For copy of any of the above patents send ten cents in postage stamps with date of this paper to C. A. Shaw & Co., Washington, D. C.

Belt-Loften.

Iley Loftin and Miss Clara Iley were married last week. The groom is a hard working young man and has many valuable qualities. The bride is one of the most attractive young girls of this county. The Record joins with their friends in wishing them useful and happy lives.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

LESSON VIII, THIRD QUARTER, INTERNATIONAL SERIES, AUG. 20.

Text of the Lesson, Jer. xxvii, 21-22; Memory Verses, 22-24—Golden Text, Jer. xlii, 13—Commentary Prepared by Rev. R. V. Stearns.

Copyright, 1905, by American Press Association.

We have had two lessons on the life of a good king, one who believed God and trembled at His word and sought very earnestly to lead the people to know and trust and serve Him. Now we have before us a son of that same king, sitting on the same throne, the throne of the Lord (I Chron. xix, 23), as the Lord's representative, but he has no respect for God or for His word. The ten tribes, the kingdom of Israel, had been carried into captivity because of their persistent rebellion against God, and now the two tribes, the kingdom of Judah, were pouring the end of God's patience with them. In less than twenty years from the date of our lesson (see verse 1) the judgment had fallen upon them, and they were captives at Babylon. When men persistently blaspheme God and refuse to listen to Him, then He speaks in judgment, but up to the last with a desire that men may not perish eternally. See verse 3 and Job xliii, 29, 30.

Jeremiah was the Lord's messenger during the last forty years before the captivity of Judah, eighteen years of the reign of Josiah and twenty-two of Jehoiakim and Zedekiah, and now after he had been the faithful witness for about twenty-two of the forty years he is commanded to write in a book the Lord's words against the people if perchance they might return to the Lord and the threatened judgments be averted. It is no easy matter to be a witness against evil and evil-doers, and Jeremiah was told at the beginning of his ministry, "They shall fight against thee, but they shall not prevail against thee, for I am with thee, saith the Lord, to deliver thee" (chapter 1, 10). Isaiah and Ezekiel were also forewarned that the people would not receive their message. The apostles were sent forth as sheep in the midst of wolves, and we are assured that throughout this whole age there will be wayward and rocky soil hearers, and tares will grow with the wheat till the harvest, while in the last days there will only be a form of godliness, without the power, and people will not endure sound doctrine (II Tim. iii, 1-5; IV, 3).

Verse 4 of our lesson chapter teaches us that Scripture is the word of the Lord. There may be a man's pen and a man's mouth, but the words are the words of the Lord. See chapter 1, 6; II Sam. xviii, 2; Deut. xiii, 18; Matt. 2, 23.

In Jeremiah the professed representative of God, cutting and burning the words of the Lord without fear or trembling, we see a foreshadowing of the destructive criticism of our own day which will not tolerate the word of God concerning sin or judgment to come or anything supernatural, will not believe in a Saviour conceived by the Holy Spirit nor in the resurrection of the dead, has no use for the solemnities of Christ and therefore no interest in foreign missions. Like the prophets of Jeremiah's time, they prophesy falsely, speak a vision of their own heart and cause people to err by their lies and their lightness, and the people seem to love to have it so (Jer. x, 20, 21; xlii, 16, 22; Isa. xvi, 10, 11).

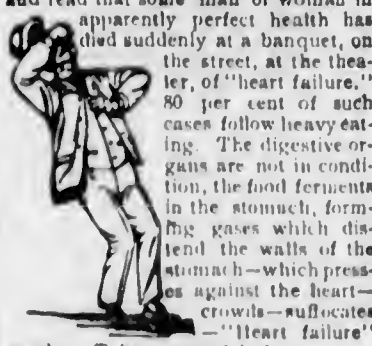

In all ages God has His remnant of faithful ones, and there were those who heeded Jeremiah's call to turn the roll, but he would not hear (verse 23). He had no use for such words as these, "He that is being often reproved, his heart is hard, his ears are closed, his eyes are closed, and he will not be converted" (Prov. xviii, 4), but he had hatred and imprisonment for those who would dare to reprove him (verse 20), reminding us of the words of Abinadi concerning Nephiah, "I hate him, for he never prophesied good unto me, but always evil" (II Chron. xvi, 7) and reminding the words of our Lord also. "If the world hate you, ye know that it hated Me before it hated you" (John vi, 7). The prince, knowing the temper of their king, had advised Jeremiah and Jeremiah to hide themselves, and now we read that the Lord told them (verses 19, 20). When the Lord told Elijah, Ahab could not possibly find him (I Kings xvi, 3; xviii, 10). There is a hiding from God and a hiding in God (Gen. iii, 8, 10; Isa. xlviii, 17, 18, 19; Zeph. ii, 3). Happy are those who can truly say, "My life is hid with Christ in God" (Col. iii, 3).

However much men may seek to destroy the word of God and seem to succeed, the true child of God rejoices in Ps. cxi, 8, "Forever, O Lord, Thy word is settled in heaven" and Isa. xl, 8, "The word of our God shall stand forever." The Lord saw Jeremiah's treatment of His message and bore patiently with him yet awhile, but told Jeremiah to take another roll and write in it all the former words and many more (verses 28, 32). Men may refuse to believe the word of God and even cut out and destroy the portions of the Bible which they do not like, but it stands, all of it, forever settled in heaven, and some day they will be there.

Although neither the king nor his people would listen to the words of the Lord, it came to pass in due time just as the Lord had said (I Chron. xxxv, 27), and so it always will be, and it shall yet be seen that whosoever is not found written in the book of life shall be cast into the lake of fire (Rev. xxi, 18). Our believing or not believing what God has said cannot in any way affect the truth. It is the unbeliever who suffers because of his unbelief and thus gives evidence of his folly and madness in thus seeking his own ruin.

DROPPED DEAD!

You pick up a paper nearly every day and read that some man or woman in apparently perfect health has died suddenly at a banquet, on the street, at the theater, or "heart failure."

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin

after eating. It relieves that "full feeling," stops fermentation, aids digestion and prevents biliousness and constipation.

L. G. HAMANN, Wonder, Ind. Ter., under date May 12, 1905, writes: "For over a year I was troubled with my heart. Doctors and medicines were unable to help me. Finally I noticed an advertisement of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin stating that it cures Heart Trouble, was caused by indigestion, and that Syrup Pepsin would cure indigestion and use of the stomach. I tried it and was fully cured and wish to take this means of telling others know of the merits of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin."

Your Money Back If It Doesn't Benefit You.

PEPSIN SYRUP CO., Monticello, Ill.

Sold by Woods & Orme and Taylor & Haynes.

Public Is Aroused.

The public is aroused to a knowledge of the curative merits of that great medicinal tonic, Electric Bitters, for sick stomach, liver and kidneys. Mary H. Walters, of 546 St. Clair Ave., Columbus, O., writes: "For several months I was given up to die. I had fever and again, my nerves were wrecked, I could not sleep and my stomach was so weak from useless doctors' drugs that I could not eat. Soon after beginning to take Electric Bitters, I obtained relief and in a short time I was entirely cured." Guaranteed a Haynes & Taylor's drug store, price 50c.

A Touching Story

is the saving from death of the baby girl of Miss A. Eyer, Cumberland, Md. He writes: "At the age of 11 months our little girl was in declining health with serious Throat Trouble and two physicians gave her up. We were almost in despair when we resolved to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. The first bottle gave relief, after taking four bottles she was cured and is now in perfect health." Never fails to relieve and cure a cough or cold. At Haynes & Taylor's drug store, 50c and $1.00 guaranteed. Trial bottle.

Notice to Sunday Schools.

Will the district presidents of the various Sunday school districts please arrange to hold their conventions as soon as possible by the first of October anyhow. Please let me hear from you at your earliest opportunity. Who will be the first to report? Yours for the cause, R. M. FRANKS, County President.

LOW SETTLERS' RATES

To Points in the West and Southwest via Cotton Belt Route.

On first and third Tuesdays of each month round trip tickets will be sold to points in Southeast Missouri, Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas, at rate of one fare plus $2. Stopovers allowed on the going trip, 21 days in which to return. Cotton Belt Route trains leave St. Louis morning and evening, making connection with all lines, and carry sleepers, chair cars and parlor cars.

Write in for literature describing the cheap lands along the Cotton Belt Route, for maps, time table and information about rates, etc.

L. O. SCHAEFER, T. P. A., Cotton Belt Route, Cincinnati, O.

You are entitled to the best your money can buy. That's what we give you every time. C. B. LAYD, Fredonia, Ky.

KILL THE COUGH AND CURE THE LUNGS

WITH Dr. King's New Discovery FOR CONSUMPTION, COUGHS AND COLDS. Price 50c & $1.00 Free Trial. Surest and Quickest Cure for all THROAT and LUNG TROUBLES, or MONEY BACK.

Good Literature

treating of the great Northwest in its scenic, historic, industrial, and commercial aspects, may be obtained for almost nothing from A. M. Cleland, General Passenger Agent, Northern Pacific Railway, St. Paul, Minn.

Wonderland, 1905

An annual publication, beautifully illustrated in color and half-tone. This issue covers particularly the Lewis and Clark Exposition, Portland, Oregon, June 1-October 15, and Yellowstone National Park.

Minnesota Lake

A fifty-page booklet, descriptive of the beautiful Minnesota Lake Park Region, and containing specific information with reference to hunting and fishing, hotel accommodations, etc., in that region. Has elegant cover in colors and is profusely and handsomely illustrated. Send four cents.

Eastward Through Storied Northwest

A thirty-page, elegantly illustrated brochure in covers very artistic in design and coloring. It describes all that is of historic and scenic interest in the journey eastward from California over the Shasta Northern Pacific route, via Portland, Puget Sound, Seattle, Tacoma, Yellowstone Park, Pyramid Park (the Badlands), Minneapolis and St. Paul. Send four cents.

Miniature Wonderland

A neat and dainty publication containing a complete history of the Northern Pacific trademark. The artistic covers of the Wonderland 1901 are used in miniature. Send four cents.

Climbing Mount Rainier

An illustrated pocket-size book, seventy-two pages, in strong, flexible covers, printed on heavy paper, descriptive of an ascent of the highest glacial peak in the United States outside of Alaska. Send twenty-five cents.

Millionaire's Poor Stomach.

The worn-out stomach of the over-fed millionaire is often paraded in the public prints as a horrible example of the evils attendant on the possession of great wealth. But millionaires are not the only ones who are afflicted with bad stomachs. The proportion is far greater among the toilers. Dyspepsia and indigestion are rampant among these people, and they suffer far worse tortures than the millionaire unless they avail themselves of a standard medicine like Green's August Flower, which has been a favorite household remedy for all stomach troubles for over thirty-five years. August Flower rouses the torpid liver, thus creating appetite and insuring perfect digestion. It tones and vitalizes the entire system and makes life worth living, no matter what your station. Trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. For sale by Woods & Orme, No. 2—alternate.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O.

Sold by druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

A SAFE INVESTMENT

One of the greatest salary makers is a good Business and Shorthand education. No other investment will bring as large returns for so small cost.

Thorough instruction. Large attendance. Experienced teachers

Handsoms catalogue showing principal features of school sent free. Don't write for one tomorrow but NOW.

LOCKYEAR'S BUSINESS COLLEGE, Evansville, Ind.

THE PAPER THAT MERITS YOUR CONFIDENCE.

The Crittenden Record

Built up from the ground in eight months to an unusual prestige and standing, then unfortunately burned out absolutely, but it never missed an issue and today greets you brighter and better than ever. In fact it's the up-to-date Western Kentucky Newspaper.

That's the Record's record, the paper that asks for your patronage.

It contains all the best General News and all the Local News in Crittenden County, and remembers adjoining counties. It is read in the home everywhere. If you are not a subscriber send in a dollar and become one now, only $1.00

CLUBBING RATES.

We have made arrangements whereby we can furnish you any of the following Daily Papers and THE CRITTENDEN RECORD at the price named:
St. Louis Republic, daily except Sunday	$4.00
and	6.80
Louisville Evening Post and chart	3.50
and	2.50
Herald, daily except Sunday	4.00
Courier Journal daily except Sunday	6.40
and	8.20
Inter Ocean daily except Sunday	4.20
and	6.00
Louisville Times	4.50
You can get the daily paper of your choice and THE RECORD at almost the price of the daily alone. We can also furnish you any paper not named above at clubbing rates.
THE RECORD with any of the following Weekly Papers:
The Courier Journal, weekly	$1.50
Louisville Herald	1.25
Nashville American	1.50
Cincinnati Enquirer	1.60
Globe-Democrat, semi-weekly	1.75
Home and Farm, weekly	1.25
Yellow Jacket, twice-a-month	1.20
Live Stock Reporter, weekly	1.50
THE RECORD one year, and
Breeders Gazette	$2.00
Practical Farmer	1.75
McCall's Magazine	1.30
Tom Watson's Magazine	1.70
Johnston Mining Magazine	2.70
What you want in this list we will be pleased to quote you lowest club prices.

THE RECORD is now in its new and modern dress in which it arises from the ashes of the late fire. No paper in Western Kentucky is in a better position to fill your wants in the advertising or publicity line and none have a stronger or more substantial following. Call on THE RECORD, make your wants known and leave a few suggestions regarding your business to the publicity of its columns and note the results. If local and general news, together with a variety of other reading matter makes a paper popular THE RECORD certainly has all those features. If you want no other paper do not fail to send a dollar to

The Crittenden Record

MARION, KY.

Harris & Shopbell ARCHITECTS

Plans prepared for both public and private buildings. Correspondence solicited. Evansville, Indiana.

F. W. NUNN Dentist

Office at Stewart's Photograph Gallery. MARION, KY.

CARL HENDERSON Attorney at Law

Will practice in all civil cases. MARION, KENTUCKY

Dr. M. Ravdin

Practice limited to Diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose & Throat

Suits 16 and 17 Arcade Building Glasses Fitted. EVANSVILLE, INDIANA

CHAMPION & CHAMPION LAWYERS

Will do a general practice in all courts. Prompt attention given to collections. Marion, Kentucky

PATENTS

60 YEARS' EXPERIENCE. TRADE MARK DESIGNS COPYRIGHTS & C. Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether it is patentable or not. We examine these strictly confidential. HANDS ON PATENTS sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents. Patents taken through McLean & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American. A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year, four months, $1.00. Sold by all newsdealers. MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York. Branch Office, 215 F St., Washington, D. C.

4 BEAUTY SPOTS

MINNESOTA LAKE PARK REGION
LAKE MACDONALD, MONTANA
LAKE CHELAN, WASHINGTON
BEAUTIFUL PUGET SOUND

AVAIL YOURSELF OF STOPOVER PRIVILEGES WHILE ON YOUR WAY TO THE

Lewis & Clark Exposition
VIA THE Great Northern Railway
"THE COMFORTABLE WAY."

For Rates or Detailed Information Address Any Representative of the Great Northern Railway

GREAT NORTHERN RAILWAY

READ THIS COUPON AND 2 CENTS FOR HANDSOMELY ILLUSTRATED BOOK-LET, "A CAMERA JOURNEY TO THE LEWIS AND CLARK EXPOSITION" TO F. J. WHITNEY, Pamph. Traffic Mgr., ST. PAUL, MINN.

Bargains Galore!

Glassware, Tinware
Coffee, Sugar
Canned Goods
Jumbo Pickles 10c per dozen Best Lard 10c per pound
Nothing but Bargains
At Goodloe's Tent!

The Crittenden Record.

ISSUED WEEKLY.

JAS. E. CHITTENDEN Editors and
C. H. WHITEHOUSE Publishers.

SUBSCRIPTION ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR.

Entered as second-class matter July 15, 1904, at the postoffice at Marion, Ky., under Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 18, 1905.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR COUNTY JUDGE
WALTER A. BLACKBURN FOR COUNTY ATTORNEY
CARL HENDERSON
FOR COUNTY CLERK
C. E. WELDON
FOR SHERIFF
J. F. FLANARY
FOR JAILOR
ALBERT H. TRAVIS
FOR ASSESSOR
J. ANTHONY DAVIDSON FOR SURVEYOR
JAS. E. SULLINGER
FOR CIRCUITOR
CHARLES WALKER
FOR SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT
JOHN B. PARIS

OUR MOTTO: For the Good of the Community.

OUR POLICY: Reliable, Conservative, Efficient.

You like THE RECORD!

Your friends would perhaps also enjoy its bright, crisp news articles, interesting serials, valuable advertising offers and other features.

Something for every member of the family is always furnished each week.

Your neighbor may become interested by just a word from you. Your effort will be appreciated by him as well as ourselves.

There are a great many names that ought to be added to our subscription list, and we believe our friends will assist in getting them there if we request it.

We do request each of our subscribers to try and add one name to our list. The contribution would be small, but in the aggregate would greatly lessen the burden imposed upon us by the recent fire.

No appeal for help has ever been made, nor is it now intended as a direct request for assistance, but we want more subscribers and we want our friends to help us get them.

The improvements which we have added, or will add in the future, will more than compensate those who aid us for their effort in our behalf.

Get your neighbor to adopt the reading habit by securing his subscription to THE RECORD.

The department of commerce and labor reports that hypodermic injections of sea water serum has effected a cure for tuberculosis.

The contract for the construction of the new Kentucky capitol was awarded by the state commission at Frankfort to the General Supply and Construction company of New York. The contract price is $800,000 and a bond of $225,000 is to be executed for the completion of the work within two years from the date the contract is signed. The building is to be of stone from the Bedford,
Ind. quarries with a base of granite.

OUGHT TO BEAT.

"Disgruntled, sore headed, tender footed, defeated, rattle brain, cross breed, bolting Democrats, carbuncles and old sores," says the Banner, are the better element Democrats of Livingston county, who have fused with the Republicans.

That the regular Democratic ticket in that county is now in danger there is now no longer any doubt in our minds.

A GOOD SUGGESTION.

Why not talk an electric line from Henderson to Paducah or Memphis. It would go through a fertile territory, the largest coal and mineral producing sect in the State and by such towns as Corydon, Uniontown, Morganfield, Sturgis, Marion, Princeton and others too numerous to mention. There is plenty of capital seeking a poorer investment than this would be. Corydon News.

A CALL.

The Livingston Banner, a Democratic organ of Livingston county, is running C. W. Mason, colored, for county attorney on what it calls the "Mule" ticket. Mason doubtlessly believes in honest government and fair elections, and that a minority should rule, and for these reasons will not likely ask for office in response to the call from the editorial sanctum of the Banner, an organ of the crowd that will have to answer this fall for the selfish misdoings of its own leaders. Remember, colored voters of Livingston county, that the crowd in power in that county would like only too well to have one of you on the ticket so it could give space in its county organs to the picture of "Rastus" especially drawn for that purpose a few years ago. Remember, too, that the Banner last week was calculated to play on your sympathies for its own selfish gains, and had it not been so, dollars to doughnuts, its editor would have said "nigger vote" instead of "colored vote" as is its usual custom.

WANT ANOTHER CHANGE?

Honest men everywhere believe not in discarding the secret ballot system for the old viva voce system of voting, but rather to improve the secret system wherever it is in any way deficient.
The secret booth where man stands alone with his conscience and God, will come nearer expressing the true will of all voters than the old system. The secret system in Kentucky was considered all right until it was corrupted by the new methods of counting. The party that corrupted it is the party that modified its changes, and is still the dissatisfied party. Dissatisfied today not so much with the system, and with itself, oh, no! But dissatisfied because its honest men—men who believe in fair and honest government, but who have been denied voice and party representation, have become a boomerang to thwart the selfish principles of the Democratic regulars who seek to perpetrate themselves in power.
In all counties and districts where such conditions prevail, the regulars are clamoring for the old viva voce system of voting. In Livingston county these conditions exist and the regular party organs are asking the voters to vote for the return of the old system. The reason is obvious. Let us keep the secret ballot and may the expressed will of the voters so be this fall.

LET IT BE MARION.

Public interest in the proposed Methodist college for Western Kentucky is increased by the lively riv-ality among the towns which are seeking to be chosen as the site.
Owensboro is already claiming success. Central City has made the greatest public display, subscribing several thousand dollars and providing for a free site at a public meeting attended by the representative citizens of the place.
Other Western Kentucky towns have been active.

Paducah has done much. The committee of the Commercial club which has charge of the proposition is working with a will and with confidence of victory.

But there ought to be a public manifestation of the interest that is felt here. Paducah is one of the most public-spirited towns in the United States, but there are times when it is slow to express the interest it feels. Let there be a public meeting apart from the Commercial club committee's business-like handling of the situation at at which an exchange of views may be had and at which Paducah men may publicly give expression to their opinions as to why Paducah should have this college and what it should do to get it. Paducah News-Democrat.

With the object in view of securing the college for Marion, officials of the Commercial club have written several letters to the trustees of the fund bequeathed for the purpose of establishing the institution in Western Kentucky. These officials, in behalf of the city, have pledged the site and offered other inducements such as Marion can offer. No place in Kentucky is nearer nature's heart than our own city. It has precisely the proper elevation to make it a healthful spot. It is surrounded by rich mineral lands on every hand. Inexhaustible beds of coal north and east, iron on the south and lead, zinc and fluor spar on every hand, besides the surrounding country is well adapted to farming and fruit growing.
All these things together make a most prosperous community. That is why people come here, and, once here, want to live here always. It is just in such a community that bright boys and girls can be impressed and every influence is congenial to the proper training of womanhood and manhood.
These, too, are some of the reasons why our own institutions of learning, Marion graded Schools, lead the State.

The Crittenden County Commercial club will do what it can to secure the M. E. college for Marion. What assistance will the citizens of Marion, as individuals, give the movement, and how many of the farmers throughout the community feel that such an institution in our midst would benefit us all, either directly or indirectly?

Arbutus Blossoms

BY RUSTIC.

A gift of the springtime they come to me,
Pure and sweet in their first, fresh bloom

As if they knew what a welcome guest
They must be in my rural home.

Telling their story of sunny days,
Of May-time brightness and orchard
bloom,

Of soft, green mosses beside the brook,
That sings with the birds its low, soft tune.

They seem to me like a dear old friend—
Some friend beloved in my vanished youth,

Keeping unchanged through all the years
Dear childhood's earnest heart of truth.

Beautiful flowers doth the florist rear,
Lovely as ever in Eden grew,
But gold can buy them everyone.

Each day will give you a garland new,
But my little arbutus so shy and sweet Will never thrive in the midst of trade;

It loveth best its quiet home
In the pasture wild 'neath the maple's shade.

There's many a life like thine, fair flower, Unknown to the world and unknown to fate,

But filled with the fragrance of noble deeds,
And, if fortune changes, ever the same.

Representative District Call.

The Republicans and all good citizens who believe in free and fair elections and impartial counts of Crittenden and Livingston counties, are hereby called to meet in mass convention at each county seat on Saturday, at 2 o'clock p. m., August 13, 1905, to elect delegates to the district convention which meets at Salem, Ky., Tuesday, August 22, 1905, to nominate a candidate for the legislature, to be voted for at the November election, 1905. Each county is entitled to one delegate for every one hundred votes and fraction over fifty cast for Roosevelt in 1904.

H. A. HAYNES, Ch'm Crittenden County Republican Committee.
H. C. McCLOUD, Ch'm Livingston County Republican Committee.

Senatorial District Call.

The Republicans of the Fourth senatorial district of Kentucky, composed of the counties of Caldwell, Crittenden and Webster, are hereby called to meet at each county seat in mass convention at 2 o'clock Saturday, August 19, 1905, for the purpose of electing delegates to the district convention which is called and meets in Marion, Ky., Thursday, August 21, 1905, to nominate a candidate for state senator, to be voted for at the November election, 1905.

Each county will be entitled to one delegate for every one hundred and fraction over fifty votes cast for Roosevelt in 1904.

FRANK N. HARRIS, Ch'm Caldwell County Republican Committee.
H. A. HAYNES, Ch'm Crittenden County Republican Committee.

J. C. THOMPSON, Ch'm Webster County Republican Committee.

A Flower Book of Real Flowers.

The Yellowstone Park Flower Book, published by the Northern Pacific, is a beautiful creation. It contains twelve specimens of real, pressed flowers, in natural colors, from Yellowstone Park, with botanical names and the places where found.

The book also has six full page, fine half-tone illustrations, showing the Park bears, Grand Canyon, geysers, hot springs, etc., found in the Park, with a brief description of this most wonderful region, 54 by 62 miles in size, in the very depths of the Rockies.

The Flower Book makes a beautiful souvenir. Send A. M. Cleland, General Passenger Agent Northern Pacific Railway, 25c for a copy.

Fleishish Suffering.

Is often caused by sores, ulcers and cancers that eat away your skin. Wm.
Hosell, of Flat Rock, Mich., says, "I have used Bucklen's Arnica Salve for Ulcers, Sores and Cancers. It is the best healing dressing I ever found." It soothes and heals cuts, burns and scalds. 25c at Haynes & Taylor's drug store, guaranteed.

Excursion to Hopkinsville.

There will be an excursion to Hopkinsville and return Sunday, August 20, 1905, fare $1.00 for the round trip.
Train leaves Marion at 9:35 a. m., return train leaving Hopkinsville at 7 o'clock p. m.

LOU T. JOHNSON, Agt.

Estrayed.

On or about the second Tuesday in April, a red heifer and a red steer, no marks, strayed from my farm near Marion. Any information will be appreciated.
J. W. GIVENS.

HYOMEI WAS USED

WITH PERFECT SUCCESS

As a Remedy For Hay Fever After Trying Other Treatments.

Before the discovery of Hyomei the only advice a physician could give his hay fever patients was to go away from home, but now anyone who is subject to this disease can, if Hyomei is used, stay at home without fear of the annual attack of sneezing, watery eyes and other discomforts.

J. E. Forbes, a well known Western railroad man, whose home is at Mc-Cook, Nebraska, writes: "I have never had any relief from any remedy for hay fever, even temporarily, until I discovered the merits of Hyomei. I always recommend it when occasion requires."

There is no offensive or dangerous stomach dosing when Hyomei is used.
This reliable remedy for the cure of all diseases of the respiratory organs is breathed through a neat pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit, so that he can take into the throat and lungs like that of the White Mountains or other health resorts, where hay fever is unknown.

The fact that Haynes & Taylor agree to refund the money to any hay fever sufferer who uses Hyomei without success, should inspire confidence in its power to effect a cure. A complete outfit costs only $1.00 and extra bottles but 50 cents.

For Prison Commissioner.

Jesse Olive, a former resident of this city, who is now filling his second term as deputy warden at the Edlyville prison, is a candidate for the office of prison commissioner and it is reported that he will make an active canvass of the state.

Six Million Acres.

The state of Texas will place on sale September 1, 1905, six million acres of state lands scattered throughout the state at from $1 to $3 per acre, one-fourth cash down, forty years' time on balance, 4 per cent. interest.

Write for particulars, also about cheap rates to the Southwest August 15, September 5 and 19, October 3
and 17.

L. W. Lallemand, G. P. and T. A.
Cotton Belt Route, St. Louis, Mo.

Visit the Lewis and Clark Exposition

Portland, Oregon, go via the beautiful Columbia River, and return through California. You will regret it if you miss Mt. Shasta and Sacramento Valley, San Francisco and Golden Gate, Yosemite Valley and Big Trees, Santa Cruz and Paso Robles, Del Norte and Monterey Bay, Santa Barbara and Los Angeles, and the Lucin 'Cut off' across Great Salt Lake. Low rates via Union Pacific. Inquire of J. H.
Bothrop, G. P. and T. A. 361 Olive St., St.
Louis, Mo.

Tennessee Central Railroad

The Shortest and most Direct Line to Nashville,
Knoxville and Bristol, N. C., Richmond, Va., Washington, D. C., New York and all other Eastern Seaports and Interior Eastern Cities, including The Virginia and Carolinas.

A First Class Double Daily Passenger service with through sleeping cars on night trains.

The Tennessee Central R. R. is a new line running through a new and rich country and offers the best opportunities in the South for the Home-seeker, the Farmer and the Stockraiser and the manufacturer. For further information address

T. A. ROUSSEAU,
Chief Clerk Traffic Dept., Nashville, Tenn.

Climatic Cures.

The influence of climatic condition in the cure of consumption is very much overlooked. The poor patient, and the rich patient, too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion, and a regular use of German Syrup. Free expectoration in the morning is made certain by German Syrup, so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakened cough and debilitating night sweat. Restless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest danger and dread of the consumptive, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warmer clime, you will find that of the thousands of consumptives there, the few who are benefited and regain strength are those who use German Syrup. Trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. For sale by Woods & Orme.

Marriage License.

Courtney Harris and Mrs. Maud
Rogers.
M. I. Lofton and Miss Clara Helt.

NoPlace in the World Compares With YELLOWSTONE NATIONAL PARK

When arranging your visit to the Lewis and Clark Exposition, be sure to include Yellowstone Park. It is a glorious wonderland, with hot pools and springs, lakes and mud volcanoes and other natural won-deries. 100 geysers. Excellent train service to the Park, including through standard Pullman sleeping cars to and from Gardiner, the entrance, via

NORTHERN PACIFIC R'Y.

Definite information on request furnished by C. P. O'Donnell, District Passenger Agent, 42 Jackson Place, Indianapolis, Ind. Send 5c for Wonderland 1905, 35c for Panoramic Park Picture and 50c for book of pressed Wild Flowers from Yellowstone Park, to A. M. Cleland, General Passenger Agent, St. Paul, Minn.

When Looking for Something in the General Merchandise Line Call on

Canada & Ordway

CRAYNEVILLE, KY.

They sell Dry Goods, Clothing, Notions, Hats, Caps and Shoes at low prices. Good Fresh Groceries of all kinds, Hardware and Medicines.

COME AND INVESTIGATE OUR PRICES.

Fairbank's Scales

THE MINERS
STANDARD!

Gas and Gasoline Engines

Portable, Stationary, Marine, Hoisting Engines, Air Compressors, Combined Engines and Pumps, Water and Electric Lighting Plants, Steam Pumps and Boilers.

Fairbanks, Morse & Co.

LOUISVILLE, KY.

Extremely Low Rates

Southern Railway.

Extremely low rates are announced via the Southern Railway from Louisville for the following special seasons:
$25.00 Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo, Col., and return, August 11-12 and 13, account Fraternal Order of Eagles.

$25.00 Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo, Col., and return, August 28 to September 2 inclusive, account National Encampment Grand Army of the Republic.

$6.00 Chattanooga, Tenn., and return
Sept. 15, 17 and 18, account Regimental Reunion, Anniversary Battle of Chick-amauga.

$41.50 Portland, Ore., and return daily up to and including Sept. 30, account Lewis and Clark Centennial Exposition.

$72.50 Portland, Ore., and return going or returning via San Francisco and Los Angeles, frequent dates during June, July, August and September, account Lewis and Clark Centennial Exposition.

$95.50 San Francisco or Los Angeles,
Cal., and return Aug. 6 to 14 inclusive.
$72.50 San Francisco, Los Angeles or San Diego, Cal., and return, frequent dates during June, July, August and September.

Cheap homeseekers tickets (round trip) to Mannas, Nebraska, Indian Territory, Oklahoma, Texas, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida and many other points, July 4th and 10th, August 1 and 15, September 5 and 19. Correspondingly low rates from other southern railway stations.
For additional information, folders, schedules, etc., address
A. R. COOK, C. P. & T. A., 254 Fourth Ave., Louisville.

C. H. HUNGERFORD, 254 Fourth Ave.,
Louisville, Ky.
G. F. ALLEN, A. G. P. A., St.
Louis, Mo.
W. H. TAYLOR, G. P. A., Washington, D. C.

LOW SETTLERS' RATES

To Points in the West and Southwest via Cotton Belt Route.

On first and third Tuesdays of each month (round trip tickets will be sold to points in Southeast Missouri, Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas, at rate of one fare plus $2. Stopovers allowed on the going trip, 21 days in which to return.
Cotton Belt Route trains leave St.
Louis morning and evening, making connection with all lines, and carry sleepers, chair cars and parlor cafe cars.

Write in for literature describing the cheap lands along the Cotton Belt Route, for maps, time table and information about rates, etc.

L. O. SCHAEFER, T. P. A.
Cotton Belt Route, Cincinnati, O.

Fresh Meat ON ICE!

Telephone Your Orders for Steaks, Roasts, and Fresh Meat of all kinds to

YATES & McCASLIN'S

Butcher Shop!

At the small cottage stand near the U. P. church, on Main street. There you will get good weight and low prices

George Givens, Butcher.
Telephone 37.

If You Will Listen!

And Look at Our Ready Made Suits for Men and Boys!

And our Line of Slippers and Oxfords for Men Women and Children you will HEAR some the Lowest Prices and SEE some of the greatest Bargains that have ever been placed before you.

New line of School Shoes just received.
No composition soles or cut off vamps.
But the kind that looks well, wears well.

New Line of Hats and Caps.

COMPLETE LINE OF W. L. DOUGLAS SHOES.

NO TROUBLE to SHOW GOODS

and

A Pleasure to Please!

Taylor & Cannan

LITTLE RECORDS.

Richard J. Morris, Dentist.

F. W. Nunn, dentist, at Stewart's

gallery.

Miss Willie Carloss is visiting in Ohio.

Miss McConnell was in Southland

Sunday.

Willcox and family visited here

Sunday.

J. P. Reed, of Kuttawa, was here

Sunday.

G. C. Pierce, of St. Louis, is visiting in the city.

Union Services at the C. P. Church

Sunday evening.

For graphophones and records apply to Emmett Koltinsky.

The best bargains in buggies at Hina-habb Company's.

Call on Woods & Orme for school

books and school supplies.

A full line of duck hats at Denman

& Love's. Call and see them.

Have your stationery, bills and circulars printed at the Record office.

S. T. Dupuy has moved into the

E. E. Hearn property on Depot street.

Joe Skelton is papering Jas. Mc-

Connell's new residence in East

Marion.

A. J. Henley, John and Frank Loyd and Chas. Byrd, of Fredonia, were in town Monday.

Miss Anna Finley began teaching at Jackson's school home Monday with a good attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wyatt, of Fredonia, were guests at Crittenden

Springs Sunday.

The Murphy melons on ice in cold storage at any time.

JNO SUTHERLAND

Miss Vera Wreflin, of Evansville, is the guest of Miss Susan Boston this week.

J. M. Wesson and wife, of Calvert

City, were guests of friends here Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Lillie Cook left last Wednesday for Oklahoma city I. T., where she will visit relatives.

V. Y. Moore went to Evansville

Sunday to see his brother, Homer, who is sick there at the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. James left last Wednesday for Michigan where they will spend a few weeks on the lake shore.

Just received, the largest shipment

of wall paper ever in Marion, 36

designs, prices from 5c to 25c per roll.

5-4t NUNN & TUCKER.

I have an excellent lead and tin-pantry to lease about one mile from Metz Station, Crittenden county.

3-3t JAMES KING.

Dudley Noggle of DeKoven is visiting his grand parents Mr. and Mrs. W.

D. Wallingford this week.

Mrs. W. C. Littenberger and daughter

Miss Etta of St. Louis is the guest of her sister Mrs. W. J. Debo this week.

Miss Effie Debo returned Tuesday

from an extended visit to Arkansas.

She was the guest of her brother,

Hugh.

J. S. Stevens has purchased the

J. B. Williams farm on Crooked

Creek and will leave town in a few weeks.

Just received, the largest shipment

of wall paper ever in Marion, 36

designs, prices from 5c to 25c per roll.

5-4t NUNN & TUCKER.

LOST—Black silk umbrella, curved handle with bird on the end, left in deposit. Finder will please return to

F. W. Nunn, dentist.

Watermelons on ice at Sutherland's.

Services at the C. P. Church next Sunday morning.

A. D. Nee arrived Tuesday from Morganfield.

John Seaman, of Fredonia, was in town Sunday.

Herman Parmenter came over from Kuttawa Sunday.

School books and school supplies.

WOODS & ORME.

F. W. Nunn, dentist, at Stewart's

gallery.

Don't forget the duck hats at Denman and Love's.

We keep watermelons in cold storage

all the time. SUTHERLAND.

A $50 dollar buggy for $45 at Hina-habb Company's.

David Kevil returned from Dawson

Springs Saturday.

L. W. Cruce and family visited in Kuttawa last week.

Frank and Curg Hill, of Lone Star, were here Monday.

Maurie Boston went to Paducah to see the State troops.

J. T. Black, of Kuttawa, was in town several days this week.

Harvey Mulhall has gone to Chrisney,

Ind., to attend the fair.

The Louisville Herald, weekly and

THE RECORD, one year, $1.02.

$1.00 to Uniontown and return, on account of the Fair. L. Johnson.

We have a full supply of school supplies at our drug store.

WOODS & ORME.

R. J. Morris, dentist. Temporary office Carnahan building.

Get a smooth face shave and hair cut at our shop and feel cool.

MITZ & SEBERRY.

Barber shop! At back end of hall in Pierce building on Salem street.

MITZ & SEBERRY.

Have your calling cards printed at the Record office. Newest and latest styles of type faces.

Dr. R. J. Morris, dentist. Temporary office Carnahan building, back of telephone exchange office.

Miss Gustava Haynes returned from Chapel Hill Tuesday where she has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Kitty

Fowler.

Just received, the largest shipment

of wall paper ever in Marion, 36

designs, prices from 5c to 25c per roll.

5-4t NUNN & TUCKER.

Will sell tickets to Paducah and return, August 8, for $1.25, Emancipa-tion Day. Lon Johnson, Agt.

Everyone invited to call and see the millinery goods at McCONNELL &

STONE's store. Miss Ruby Castleberry can please you.

J. M. McCallahan who recently sold his interest in the butchea business, to his partner Hope Yates has entered the food business with Tom Conyer near I.

C. crossing on Belleville St.

Try a gallon of my home grown sorghum. My word for it, you will not regret it. J. FRANK CONGER.

Calling cards, invitations and an-ouncements printed on short notice at

THE RECORD office.

Miss Ruby Castleberry will be prepared to make any kind of hat you may want, in the very newest goods and styles at McCONNELL & STONE's new store building.

The flavor is half the battle. The purely is the other half. My sorghum is pure and has a flavor that is delicious. J. FRANK CONGER.

We have just received a big supply of the famous "Whitehal" Portland cement, the kind that is recommended

F. W. Nunn, dentist.

Z. A. Bennett, of Smithland, was in the city this week.

Dr. G. E. Moreland, of Fords Ferry, was in town Monday.

Mrs. Elder was reported some better

the first of the week.

C. H. Whitehouse was in Louisville

Monday returning Tuesday.

J. B. Williams will leave for Missouri in a few days on a prospect trip.

L. H. James went to Paducah the last of last week to see the State guards

R. M. Willborn came home from Greenville Thursday, to spend a few weeks.

Call on Woods & Orme for school

books and school supplies.

Only first-class, up-to-date job printing done at the Record office.

Wm. Redd sold some fine cattle to George Foster last Friday.

Charles E. Grady, of Valparaiso,

Ind., is visiting his father, R. C.

Grady, near Rodney.

Mrs. Eva Moore was again called to Providence to the bedside of her father, who is worse.

Misses Nellie and Ollie Butler from

New Murdock Kan. are visiting their aunt, Mrs. R. H. Butler near the city.

Hina-Habb Company's is the place to buy your buggies and surries cheap.

A good surry for $52.50.

A full line of school books and school supplies will be kept on hand at Haynes

& Taylor's drug store.

If we please you, tell others. If we fail to please you, tell us.

MITZ & SEBERRY.

Mrs. H. M. Cook, of Marion, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. S. H.

Cromwell. —Henderson Journal

Ben Curry, of Ansonia, Mo., was the guest of relatives here Saturday while enroute home after visiting relatives in Webster county.

Miss Anna Eliza Johnson and brother,

Thomas, were the guests of their brother Walter, who is a street car conductor at Evansville, Sunday.

Mrs. T. E. Hearin and children left

Wednesday for Indiana where they go to reside and where Mr. Hearin is engaged in the grocery business.

Miss Ruby Castleberry will open her millinery store the first of September at McCONNELL & STONE's store. She is remembered as being trimmer here for a long time.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Rodgers and two sons Emmitt and Herbert who have been spending the past week at the Crittenden Springs returned to their home in Henderson Monday.

Mrs. Cavendar, accompanied by her niece, Miss Irene Browning, who has been visiting her for some time, left

Monday for Roseclair, Ill., where she will visit for about two weeks.

A. W. Finley, cashier for the Cumberland Telephone and Telegraph

Company at Shreveport, La., visited his parents here several days this week and left for that place Wednesday.

"I like THE RECORD," said J. M.

Hill, of Iron Hill, as he placed on the editor's desk one of the largest and finest peaches the editor had ever seen.

It was prettier than a picture and tasted as good as it looked.

Remember that never under any circumstances do we sacrifice quality in order to quote little prices, but buy the best and give it to you at lowest prices. C. B. LOYD, Fredonia, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Drennan arrived

Saturday from Ansonia, Mo., and this week they are visiting the family of Judge Aaron Towery, near Piney.

Chs. Moore, having recently returned from Clifty on account of the distillery closing down, will likely remain here and be directed, by the Government, to take charge of the Old Hickory distillery when it starts up.

All persons who furnished dishes and freezers for the dinner Monday and who failed to get them will find same at Orme's drug store warehouse where they were placed on account of not being tagged. COMMITTEE.

The following persons spent Sunday at Crittenden Springs: Swaffield and wife, R. L. Flanary and wife, George

Roberts wife and baby, Harry Watkins and daughter, Miss Agnes, Messrs.

Creed Taylor, Rob Cook, Wm. Clifton,

Misses Elba Pickens and Kittie Cray.

Mrs. A. S. Cavender entertained

Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Pierce in the honor of her guest Miss Irene Browning of Evansville. Light refreshments were served consisting of lunch and Sherbit. The floral contest was very

EBEN HOLDEN

By IRVING BACHELLER

Copyright, 1900, by LOTHROP PUBLISHING COMPANY

Synopsis of Previous Chapters.

CHAPTER I.—I am left an orphan at six and am saved from a dissolute uncle by Eben Holden, an old man who has worked for my father. Uncle Eben takes me through the wilderness from Vermont to seek a new home in New York State.

II.—Our adventures in the woods. Uncle Eben scares away a panther.

III.—A woman presents a little wagon to me, to which Fred, our dog, is attached. A man tries to enter our camp in the woods.

IV.—Uncle Eben repulses the intruder. We stay in an old cabin and are warned during the night to leave by its mysterious owner.

V.—I meet Jed Peary, a country poet who takes a liking to me. I am almost frozen to death and am saved by Uncle Eben.

VII.—Hope and I try to save our old dog from the butcher's hands, but are compelled by circumstances to leave him to starve.

IX.—The mysterious "night man," a nocturnal prowler of the countryside, is lured to the children. Story of Nehemiah Brower, who killed another boy by accident, ran away and was reported drowned near Van Deiman's land. I escort Hope to a "school" in the woods.

X.—I win distinction at school. Hope's musical ability develops. Her voice is praised by young Mr. Livingstone, a visitor from the city. I disclose my love for Hope to Jed Peary, who advises me to study.

XI.—And XII.—Gerald Brower, my young foster brother, dies. Hope and I go away to the Hillsborough academy.

XIII.—My Academy work is praised. Mr. Livingstone sends Christmas gifts from the city to Hope and her mother.

XIV.—Hope and I confess our mutual love, which is not to be spoken of until we are older.

CHAPTER XII.

IN October following the events of the last chapter Gerald died of consumption, having borne a lingering illness with great fortitude. I, who had come there a homeless orphan in a basket and with the few given eloquence of child hood had brought them to take me to their hearts and the old man that was with me as well, was now the only son left to Elizabeth and David Brower. There were those who called it folly at the time they took us in, I have heard, but who shall read this history to the end shall see how that kind of folly may profit one or even many here in this hard world.

It was a gloomy summer for all of us. The industry and patience with which Hope bore her trial night and day is the sweetest recollection of my youth. It brought to her young face a tender solemnity of womanhood—a subtle change of expression that made her all the more dear to me. Every day, rain or shine, the old doctor had come to visit his patient, sometimes sitting an hour and gazing thoughtfully in his face, occasionally asking a question or telling a quaint anecdote. And then came the end.

The sky was cold and gray in the late autumn, and the leaves were drifted deep in the edge of the woodlands when Hope and I went away to school together at Hillsborough. Uncle Eben drove us to our boarding place in town. When we rode him goodly and saw him driving away alone in the wagon we hardly dared look at each other for the tears in our eyes.

David Brower had taken board for us at the house of one Solomon Hollin, universally known as "Uncle Hollin." That was one of the first things I learned at the academy. It seemed that many years ago he had taken his girl to a dance and offered her in lieu of supper cookies that he had thoughtfully brought with him. Thus cheaply he had come to lifelong distinction.

"You know Hollin's ancient history, don't you?" the young man asked who sat with me at school that first day.

"Have it at home," I answered. "It's in five volumes."

"I mean the history of Sol Hollin, the man you are boarding with," said he, smiling at me, and then he told the story of the cookies.

The principal of the Hillsborough academy was a big, brawny teacher of Scotch descent, with a stern face and cold gray, glaring eyes. When he stood towering above us on his platform in the main room of the building where I sat there was an air of sternness in his figure and a look of responsibility in his face that reminded me of the pictures of Napoleon at Waterloo. He always carried a stout ruler that had blunted a slant of every mischievous boy in school. As he stood by the line that came marching in to prayers every morning he would frequently pull out a boy, administer a loud whack or two, smite him violently and force him into a seat.

The day I began my studies at the academy I saw him put two dents in the wall with the heels of a young man who had fallen in his algebra. To a beautiful and sensitive youth just out of a country home the sight of such violence was appalling. My first talk with him, however, renewed my courage. He had heard I was a good scholar and talked with me in a friendly way about my plans. Both Hope and I were under him in algebra and Latin. I won't remember my first error in his class. I had misinterpreted a Latin sentence. He looked at me in a smile and a cheer crowding each other for possession of his face. In a loud, jarring tone he cried, "Mirabile dictum!"

I looked at him, in doubt of his meaning.

"Mirabile dictum!" he shouted, his tongue trailing the r.

I corrected my error.

"Perfect!" he cried again. "Puer pulchre!" Next!

He never went further than that with me in the way of correction. My size and my skill as a wrestler, that shortly insured for me the respect of the boys, helped me to win the esteem of the master. I learned my lessons and kept out of mischief. But others of equal proficiency were not so fortunate. He was apt to be hard on a light man who could be handled without overexertion.

Uncle Eben came in to see me one day and sat awhile with me in my seat. While he was there the master took a boy by the collar and almost literally whiplashed the blackboard with him. There was a great clatter of heels for a moment. Uncle Eben went away shortly and was at Sol Hollin's when I came to dinner.

"Powerful man, ain't he?" said Uncle Eben.

"Father," I said.

"Turned that boy into a regular horse fiddle," he remarked. "Must have upset his reason."

"Necessary," I said.

"Reminded me of the time 'at Tip Taylor got his tooth pulled," said he.

"Shook 'im up so 'at he thought he'd had his neck put out o' 'im!"

Sol Hollin was one of my studies that winter. He was a carpenter by trade, and his oddities were new and delightful.

He whistled as he worked; he whistled as he read; he whistled right merrily as he walked up and down the streets, a short, slight figure with a round, boyish face and a fringe of iron gray hair under his chin. The little man had one big passion—that for getting and saving. The ancient theft of his race had pinched him small and narrow as a foot is stunted by a tight shoe. His mind was a lot out of register, as we say in the printing business. His vocabulary was rich and vivid and stimulating.

"Somebody broke into the arsenic to-day," he announced one evening at the supper table.

"The arsenic?" said somebody. "What arsenic?"

"Why the place where they keep the powder," he answered.

"Oh, the arsenic!"

"Yes, the arsenic," he said, cackling with laughter at his error. Then he grew serious.

"Stole all the ammunition out of it," he added.

"You mean ammunition, don't you, Solomon?" his wife inquired.

"Certainly," said he. "Wasn't that what I said?"

When he had said a thing that met his own approval Sol Hollin would chuckle most cheerfully and then crack a knuckle by twisting a finger. His laugh was mostly out of register also. It had a sad look of reserve. He laughed on principle rather than conviction. Some sort of secret comedy of which the world knew nothing was passing in his mind. It seemed to leave its exerts and its entrance its old belt, its elbow and its nose, was got all the applause.

While working his job was unimportant. Many a time I have sat and watched him in his little shop, as was

CHAPTER XIII.

IT MIGHT be said that I have had and shall have to chronicle his term that would seem to indicate a healthy content of myself. I fortunately the little word "I" was a big shadow in this history. It was of no great frequency in every page of the sum of a modest man. But unless I cannot help it, I will be the only chronicler of all that is to come. Now there is much to be said, in the very narrow of my history. Things that never would have happened things that never would have been said but for my love as a scholar. My learning was of some account, for it must be remembered I am writing of a time when my degree of scholarship was counted remarkable among the simple folk of Faraway.

Hope took singing lessons and sang in church every Sunday. David and I went down for us often of a Saturday and brought in back before supper by the morning. One may find in that town today many who will have in tell of the color and beauty and sweetness of Hope Brower those days and of what they expected regarding her and me. We went out a good deal evenings to concerts, lectures at the churches or the college of the city some of the many people who invited us to their homes.

We had a recess of two weeks at the winter holidays, and David and I went after us the day the term ended. The great happiness of that day before Christmas when we were dying home in the snug hotel a new team of grays and felt the introduction of the frosty air, and drove in at dusk after the lamps were lit and we could see brother and Uncle Eben and Grandma Bissette looking out of the window, and a streaming dinner on the table!

I declare! It is long since then, but I cannot ever think of that time without wiping my glasses and taking a moment off. Tip Taylor took the horses, and we all came in where the kettle was singing on the stove, and loving hands helped us out of our wraps. The supper was a merry feast, the like of which one may find only by returning to his boyhood. Alack, that is a long history for some of us!

We had a recess of two weeks at the winter holidays, and David and I went after us the day the term ended. The great happiness of that day before Christmas when we were dying home in the snug hotel a new team of grays and felt the introduction of the frosty air, and drove in at dusk after the lamps were lit and we could see brother and Uncle Eben and Grandma Bissette looking out of the window, and a streaming dinner on the table!

I declare! It is long since then, but I cannot ever think of that time without wiping my glasses and taking a moment off. Tip Taylor took the horses, and we all came in where the kettle was singing on the stove, and loving hands helped us out of our wraps. The supper was a merry feast, the like of which one may find only by returning to his boyhood. Alack, that is a long history for some of us!

"Where can I get a piece of yellow

CHAPTER XIII.

IT MIGHT be said that I have had and shall have to chronicle his term that would seem to indicate a healthy content of myself. I fortunately the little word "I" was a big shadow in this history. It was of no great frequency in every page of the sum of a modest man. But unless I cannot help it, I will be the only chronicler of all that is to come. Now there is much to be said, in the very narrow of my history. Things that never would have happened things that never would have been said but for my love as a scholar. My learning was of some account, for it must be remembered I am writing of a time when my degree of scholarship was counted remarkable among the simple folk of Faraway.

Hope took singing lessons and sang in church every Sunday. David and I went down for us often of a Saturday and brought in back before supper by the morning. One may find in that town today many who will have in tell of the color and beauty and sweetness of Hope Brower those days and of what they expected regarding her and me. We went out a good deal evenings to concerts, lectures at the churches or the college of the city some of the many people who invited us to their homes.

We had a recess of two weeks at the winter holidays, and David and I went after us the day the term ended. The great happiness of that day before Christmas when we were dying home in the snug hotel a new team of grays and felt the introduction of the frosty air, and drove in at dusk after the lamps were lit and we could see brother and Uncle Eben and Grandma Bissette looking out of the window, and a streaming dinner on the table!

I declare! It is long since then, but I cannot ever think of that time without wiping my glasses and taking a moment off. Tip Taylor took the horses, and we all came in where the kettle was singing on the stove, and loving hands helped us out of our wraps. The supper was a merry feast, the like of which one may find only by returning to his boyhood. Alack, that is a long history for some of us!

"Where can I get a piece of yellow

CHAPTER XIII.

IT MIGHT be said that I have had and shall have to chronicle his term that would seem to indicate a healthy content of myself. I fortunately the little word "I" was a big shadow in this history. It was of no great frequency in every page of the sum of a modest man. But unless I cannot help it, I will be the only chronicler of all that is to come. Now there is much to be said, in the very narrow of my history. Things that never would have happened things that never would have been said but for my love as a scholar. My learning was of some account, for it must be remembered I am writing of a time when my degree of scholarship was counted remarkable among the simple folk of Faraway.

Hope took singing lessons and sang in church every Sunday. David and I went down for us often of a Saturday and brought in back before supper by the morning. One may find in that town today many who will have in tell of the color and beauty and sweetness of Hope Brower those days and of what they expected regarding her and me. We went out a good deal evenings to concerts, lectures at the churches or the college of the city some of the many people who invited us to their homes.

We had a recess of two weeks at the winter holidays, and David and I went after us the day the term ended. The great happiness of that day before Christmas when we were dying home in the snug hotel a new team of grays and felt the introduction of the frosty air, and drove in at dusk after the lamps were lit and we could see brother and Uncle Eben and Grandma Bissette looking out of the window, and a streaming dinner on the table!

I declare! It is long since then, but I cannot ever think of that time without wiping my glasses and taking a moment off. Tip Taylor took the horses, and we all came in where the kettle was singing on the stove, and loving hands helped us out of our wraps. The supper was a merry feast, the like of which one may find only by returning to his boyhood. Alack, that is a long history for some of us!

"Where can I get a piece of yellow

CHAPTER XIII.

IT MIGHT be said that I have had and shall have to chronicle his term that would seem to indicate a healthy content of myself. I fortunately the little word "I" was a big shadow in this history. It was of no great frequency in every page of the sum of a modest man. But unless I cannot help it, I will be the only chronicler of all that is to come. Now there is much to be said, in the very narrow of my history. Things that never would have happened things that never would have been said but for my love as a scholar. My learning was of some account, for it must be remembered I am writing of a time when my degree of scholarship was counted remarkable among the simple folk of Faraway.

Hope took singing lessons and sang in church every Sunday. David and I went down for us often of a Saturday and brought in back before supper by the morning. One may find in that town today many who will have in tell of the color and beauty and sweetness of Hope Brower those days and of what they expected regarding her and me. We went out a good deal evenings to concerts, lectures at the churches or the college of the city some of the many people who invited us to their homes.

We had a recess of two weeks at the winter holidays, and David and I went after us the day the term ended. The great happiness of that day before Christmas when we were dying home in the snug hotel a new team of grays and felt the introduction of the frosty air, and drove in at dusk after the lamps were lit and we could see brother and Uncle Eben and Grandma Bissette looking out of the window, and a streaming dinner on the table!

I declare! It is long since then, but I cannot ever think of that time without wiping my glasses and taking a moment off. Tip Taylor took the horses, and we all came in where the kettle was singing on the stove, and loving hands helped us out of our wraps. The supper was a merry feast, the like of which one may find only by returning to his boyhood. Alack, that is a long history for some of us!

"Where can I get a piece of yellow

CHAPTER XIII.

IT MIGHT be said that I have had and shall have to chronicle his term that would seem to indicate a healthy content of myself. I fortunately the little word "I" was a big shadow in this history. It was of no great frequency in every page of the sum of a modest man. But unless I cannot help it, I will be the only chronicler of all that is to come. Now there is much to be said, in the very narrow of my history. Things that never would have happened things that never would have been said but for my love as a scholar. My learning was of some account, for it must be remembered I am writing of a time when my degree of scholarship was counted remarkable among the simple folk of Faraway.

Hope took singing lessons and sang in church every Sunday. David and I went down for us often of a Saturday and brought in back before supper by the morning. One may find in that town today many who will have in tell of the color and beauty and sweetness of Hope Brower those days and of what they expected regarding her and me. We went out a good deal evenings to concerts, lectures at the churches or the college of the city some of the many people who invited us to their homes.

We had a recess of two weeks at the winter holidays, and David and I went after us the day the term ended. The great happiness of that day before Christmas when we were dying home in the snug hotel a new team of grays and felt the introduction of the frosty air, and drove in at dusk after the lamps were lit and we could see brother and Uncle Eben and Grandma Bissette looking out of the window, and a streaming dinner on the table!

I declare! It is long since then, but I cannot ever think of that time without wiping my glasses and taking a moment off. Tip Taylor took the horses, and we all came in where the kettle was singing on the stove, and loving hands helped us out of our wraps. The supper was a merry feast, the like of which one may find only by returning to his boyhood. Alack, that is a long history for some of us!

"Where can I get a piece of yellow

CHAPTER XIII.

IT MIGHT be said that I have had and shall have to chronicle his term that would seem to indicate a healthy content of myself. I fortunately the little word "I" was a big shadow in this history. It was of no great frequency in every page of the sum of a modest man. But unless I cannot help it, I will be the only chronicler of all that is to come. Now there is much to be said, in the very narrow of my history. Things that never would have happened things that never would have been said but for my love as a scholar. My learning was of some account, for it must be remembered I am writing of a time when my degree of scholarship was counted remarkable among the simple folk of Faraway.

Hope took singing lessons and sang in church every Sunday. David and I went down for us often of a Saturday and brought in back before supper by the morning. One may find in that town today many who will have in tell of the color and beauty and sweetness of Hope Brower those days and of what they expected regarding her and me. We went out a good deal evenings to concerts, lectures at the churches or the college of the city some of the many people who invited us to their homes.

We had a recess of two weeks at the winter holidays, and David and I went after us the day the term ended. The great happiness of that day before Christmas when we were dying home in the snug hotel a new team of grays and felt the introduction of the frosty air, and drove in at dusk after the lamps were lit and we could see brother and Uncle Eben and Grandma Bissette looking out of the window, and a streaming dinner on the table!

I declare! It is long since then, but I cannot ever think of that time without wiping my glasses and taking a moment off. Tip Taylor took the horses, and we all came in where the kettle was singing on the stove, and loving hands helped us out of our wraps. The supper was a merry feast, the like of which one may find only by returning to his boyhood. Alack, that is a long history for some of us!

"Where can I get a piece of yellow

CHAPTER XIII.

IT MIGHT be said that I have had and shall have to chronicle his term that would seem to indicate a healthy content of myself. I fortunately the little word "I" was a big shadow in this history. It was of no great frequency in every page of the sum of a modest man. But unless I cannot help it, I will be the only chronicler of all that is to come. Now there is much to be said, in the very narrow of my history. Things that never would have happened things that never would have been said but for my love as a scholar. My learning was of some account, for it must be remembered I am writing of a time when my degree of scholarship was counted remarkable among the simple folk of Faraway.

Hope took singing lessons and sang in church every Sunday. David and I went down for us often of a Saturday and brought in back before supper by the morning. One may find in that town today many who will have in tell of the color and beauty and sweetness of Hope Brower those days and of what they expected regarding her and me. We went out a good deal evenings to concerts, lectures at the churches or the college of the city some of the many people who invited us to their homes.

We had a recess of two weeks at the winter holidays, and David and I went after us the day the term ended. The great happiness of that day before Christmas when we were dying home in the snug hotel a new team of grays and felt the introduction of the frosty air, and drove in at dusk after the lamps were lit and we could see brother and Uncle Eben and Grandma Bissette looking out of the window, and a streaming dinner on the table!

I declare! It is long since then, but I cannot ever think of that time without wiping my glasses and taking a moment off. Tip Taylor took the horses, and we all came in where the kettle was singing on the stove, and loving hands helped us out of our wraps. The supper was a merry feast, the like of which one may find only by returning to his boyhood. Alack, that is a long history for some of us!

"Where can I get a piece of yellow

"See 'n a minute," he said. Then he continued his sawing and his song. "Says I, 'Man Skinner, I think yer mighty mean!' What d'ye want it for?" he asked, stopping abruptly. "Going to make a ruler?" I answered. "T' sent me up the river with a seven dollar team!" he went on, picking out a piece of smooth planed lumber and handing it to me. "How much is it worth?" I inquired. He whistled a moment as he surveyed it carefully. "Bout a cent," he answered seriously.

I handed him the money and sat down awhile to watch him as he went on with his work. It was the cheapest amusement I have yet enjoyed. In deed, Sol Hollin became a dissipation, a subtle and sensitive habit, that grew upon me, and on one pretext or another I went every Saturday to the shop if I had not gone home.

"What ye got?" I asked.

He stopped his saw and looked at me, waiting for my answer.

At last the time had come when I must declare myself, and I did.

"A journalist," I replied.

"What's that?" he inquired curiously.

"An editor," I said.

"A printer man?"

"Huh," said he. "Mebbe I'll give ye a job. Surety tell me I'll order I'll have some cards printed. I'll want good plain print, 'Solomon Hollin, Carpenter and Joiner, Hillsborough, N. Y.' Sound's purty good, don't it?"

"Beautiful," I answered.

"I'll git a big lot on 'em," he said.

"I'll want one for Sister Susan 'at's out in Minnesota—no, I guess I'll send 'er tew, so she can give one away an' one for my brother, Elphalet, an' one apiece for my three cousins over in Vermont an' one for my aunt Miranda. I'll see—tew an' one is three an' three is six an' one is seven. When I'll git a few struck off for the folks here. Guess they'll think I'm gitting up 'n the world!"

He shook and snickered with anticipation of the glory of it. Pure vanity inspired him in the matter, and it had in it no vulgar consideration of business policy. He whistled a lively tune as he bent to his work again.

"Ye sister says ye're a splendid scholar," said he. "Heard 'er braggin' 'bout ye father night. She thinks a good deal of her brother. I can tell ye. Guess I know what she's got to give ye Christmas."

"What's that?" I asked, with a curiosity more youthful than lessening.

"Don't ye never let on," said he.

"Never," said I.

"Heard 'er tell," he said. "'Twas a gold lockup with 'er picture in it."

"Oh, a lockup!" I exclaimed.

"That's it," he replied, "an' pure gold!"

I turned to go.

"Hope shall grow up a savin' woman," he remarked. "'Traid she won't never be very good 't work."

"Why not?" I inquired.

"Huh! 're too little an' white," he answered.

"She won't have to," I said.

He cackled uproariously for a moment then grew serious.

"Her father's rich," he said, the richest man of Faraway, an' I guess she won't never be anything 't dew but set on sing an' play the melodeion."

"She can do as she likes," I said.

He stood a moment looking down as if meditating on the details he had pictured.

"Gee!" he exclaimed suddenly.

My subject had begun to study me, and I came away to escape further examination.

CHAPTER XIII.

IT MIGHT be said that I have had and shall have to chronicle his term that would seem to indicate a healthy content of myself. I fortunately the little word "I" was a big shadow in this history. It was of no great frequency in every page of the sum of a modest man. But unless I cannot help it, I will be the only chronicler of all that is to come. Now there is much to be said, in the very narrow of my history. Things that never would have happened things that never would have been said but for my love as a scholar. My learning was of some account, for it must be remembered I am writing of a time when my degree of scholarship was counted remarkable among the simple folk of Faraway.

Hope took singing lessons and sang in church every Sunday. David and I went down for us often of a Saturday and brought in back before supper by the morning. One may find in that town today many who will have in tell of the color and beauty and sweetness of Hope Brower those days and of what they expected regarding her and me. We went out a good deal evenings to concerts, lectures at the churches or the college of the city some of the many people who invited us to their homes.

We had a recess of two weeks at the winter holidays, and David and I went after us the day the term ended. The great happiness of that day before Christmas when we were dying home in the snug hotel a new team of grays and felt the introduction of the frosty air, and drove in at dusk after the lamps were lit and we could see brother and Uncle Eben and Grandma Bissette looking out of the window, and a streaming dinner on the table!

I declare! It is long since then, but I cannot ever think of that time without wiping my glasses and taking a moment off. Tip Taylor took the horses, and we all came in where the kettle was singing on the stove, and loving hands helped us out of our wraps. The supper was a merry feast, the like of which one may find only by returning to his boyhood. Alack, that is a long history for some of us!

"Where can I get a piece of yellow

CHAPTER XIII.

IT MIGHT be said that I have had and shall have to chronicle his term that would seem to indicate a healthy content of myself. I fortunately the little word "I" was a big shadow in this history. It was of no great frequency in every page of the sum of a modest man. But unless I cannot help it, I will be the only chronicler of all that is to come. Now there is much to be said, in the very narrow of my history. Things that never would have happened things that never would have been said but for my love as a scholar. My learning was of some account, for it must be remembered I am writing of a time when my degree of scholarship was counted remarkable among the simple folk of Faraway.

Hope took singing lessons and sang in church every Sunday. David and I went down for us often of a Saturday and brought in back before supper by the morning. One may find in that town today many who will have in tell of the color and beauty and sweetness of Hope Brower those days and of what they expected regarding her and me. We went out a good deal evenings to concerts, lectures at the churches or the college of the city some of the many people who invited us to their homes.

We had a recess of two weeks at the winter holidays, and David and I went after us the day the term ended. The great happiness of that day before Christmas when we were dying home in the snug hotel a new team of grays and felt the introduction of the frosty air, and drove in at dusk after the lamps were lit and we could see brother and Uncle Eben and Grandma Bissette looking out of the window, and a streaming dinner on the table!

I declare! It is long since then, but I cannot ever think of that time without wiping my glasses and taking a moment off. Tip Taylor took the horses, and we all came in where the kettle was singing on the stove, and loving hands helped us out of our wraps. The supper was a merry feast, the like of which one may find only by returning to his boyhood. Alack, that is a long history for some of us!

"Where can I get a piece of yellow

CHAPTER XIII.

IT MIGHT be said that I have had and shall have to chronicle his term that would seem to indicate a healthy content of myself. I fortunately the little word "I" was a big shadow in this history. It was of no great frequency in every page of the sum of a modest man. But unless I cannot help it, I will be the only chronicler of all that is to come. Now there is much to be said, in the very narrow of my history. Things that never would have happened things that never would have been said but for my love as a scholar. My learning was of some account, for it must be remembered I am writing of a time when my degree of scholarship was counted remarkable among the simple folk of Faraway.

Hope took singing lessons and sang in church every Sunday. David and I went down for us often of a Saturday and brought in back before supper by the morning. One may find in that town today many who will have in tell of the color and beauty and sweetness of Hope Brower those days and of what they expected regarding her and me. We went out a good deal evenings to concerts, lectures at the churches or the college of the city some of the many people who invited us to their homes.

We had a recess of two weeks at the winter holidays, and David and I went after us the day the term ended. The great happiness of that day before Christmas when we were dying home in the snug hotel a new team of grays and felt the introduction of the frosty air, and drove in at dusk after the lamps were lit and we could see brother and Uncle Eben and Grandma Bissette looking out of the window, and a streaming dinner on the table!

I declare! It is long since then, but I cannot ever think of that time without wiping my glasses and taking a moment off. Tip Taylor took the horses, and we all came in where the kettle was singing on the stove, and loving hands helped us out of our wraps. The supper was a merry feast, the like of which one may find only by returning to his boyhood. Alack, that is a long history for some of us!

"Where can I get a piece of yellow

CHAPTER XIII.

IT MIGHT be said that I have had and shall have to chronicle his term that would seem to indicate a healthy content of myself. I fortunately the little word "I" was a big shadow in this history. It was of no great frequency in every page of the sum of a modest man. But unless I cannot help it, I will be the only chronicler of all that is to come. Now there is much to be said, in the very narrow of my history. Things that never would have happened things that never would have been said but for my love as a scholar. My learning was of some account, for it must be remembered I am writing of a time when my degree of scholarship was counted remarkable among the simple folk of Faraway.

Hope took singing lessons and sang in church every Sunday. David and I went down for us often of a Saturday and brought in back before supper by the morning. One may find in that town today many who will have in tell of the color and beauty and sweetness of Hope Brower those days and of what they expected regarding her and me. We went out a good deal evenings to concerts, lectures at the churches or the college of the city some of the many people who invited us to their homes.

We had a recess of two weeks at the winter holidays, and David and I went after us the day the term ended. The great happiness of that day before Christmas when we were dying home in the snug hotel a new team of grays and felt the introduction of the frosty air, and drove in at dusk after the lamps were lit and we could see brother and Uncle Eben and Grandma Bissette looking

GREAT BANKRUPT SALE!

In the Big Tent!
Opposite
New Marion Hotel,
Marion, Kentucky.

WHO ARE WE?

Our story is short and to the point. For the past few months our eyes have been on Marion as a coming business center. It was our idea to establish a first-class Dry Goods, Clothing and Shoe store here about October 1---as we were unable to get a house before that time---but by a lucky chance we bought a large Bankrupt stock and decided to come to Marion, put up a tent and close out this Bankrupt Stock in the shortest possible time. This stock is all clean, up-to-date, seasonable Merchandise and the only thing that looks bankrupt about it are the prices, which, in many cases, are not one-quarter of its actual value. But we bought it cheap and we are going to sell it cheaper than you ever imagined it would be possible for you to buy. Come every day. Be sure to come the first day, Saturday, August 19th.

Commences
8:30 O'clock
Saturday Morning
August 19th.

You Cannot Afford to Miss this Opportunity to Save Money.

Dress Up!

While you can buy an $18.00 Suit of clothes for $10.00. Our Stock of Clothing is especially large and is all of the better goods, but Bankrupt prices prevail here, so that you can get a High Grade suit Cheaper than you usually wanted to pay for a very common one

Odd Pants!

A Big lot of Odd Pants that sold for $2.00, BANKRUPT PRICE, $1.25

Have You Two Feet?

If you have, we want you to bring them into our Tent and have them fit with Shoes that are a positive cure for corns---no extra charge. We bought these shoes at Bankrupt Prices and going to sell them same way. All kinds:

Low cuts, high cuts, Hanan, Walk-over, Walk E-Z, Queen Quality, American Girl

and other well known makes. Not all sizes in all styles, but some sizes in every style

Calicoes

10,000 yards of Mill Ends and short lengths of Calico in this Bankrupt Sale

2<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> Cents per Yard

Dress Goods

What we have in dress goods are mostly in short lengths. Dress and Waist patterns, but these are well assorted as to styles and materials. With Bankrupt prices on this dress goods, you can get a nice dress for about one-half you would usually pay.

WHITE AND WASH GOODS.

A big lot of remnants and short lengths of White and Wash Goods in this sale at prices you would not believe possible, and is only possible in a Bankrupt sale.

Ribbons by the Barrel.

You never heard of selling ribbons by the Barrel; that is the way we are going to sell them during this Bankrupt sale. Best good Taffeta, all colors. Your choice for 10 cents.

Shirt Waists

Only three dozen in the lot---all new styles, neatly made and trimmed out of best material. usually sold at $1.00, Bankrupt Sale Price

29c

Work Shirts and Overalls

A good work shirt is something every workman needs. We have 35 dozens of them in this sale, shirts that sold as high as $1. Bankrupt Sale Price

39c

Overalls---The work shirt's companion is a pair of overalls. Big lot well made overalls for

39c

Ladies' Belts and Bags

Eight Dozen Belts in this stock that sold for 50c to $1.00. Bankrupt prices 10c and 15c

Bags---All the new things in Ladies' Hand-bags.

All Goods Plainly Marked

with Big Red Tags, and absolutely one price to all, and that a Bankrupt Price.

Here's a Bargain.

While the season is pretty well advanced, yet there is plenty of time to wear a cool summer dress, and to give our lady friends a chance, we are going to sell Organdies that sold for 15c and 25c

5c

Notions

Adamantine Pins, per 100-1c
Good Brass Pins, per 100-1c
Nickel Safety Pins, per 2c
Hair Pins---Bankrupt price a package 1c
Toilet Soap Box of three cakes 9c
200-yard spool of thread, per spool 2c
Gold Plated Collar Buttons 1c
Ladies' Handkerchiefs 1c
Talcum Powder Large sized can 5c
Umbrellas---36 inch, fast black 29c
Hair Brushes---Genuine Bristles 10c
Pearl Buttons---Per dozen 2c

NOW LOOK HERE!

Take a day off and attend this sale. It will pay well for your time. We want everybody to partake of this bargain feast, and you will confer a favor upon us by introducing yourselves. We want to know you personally.

Don't Forget the place and date. In the Big Tent, opposite the New Marion Hotel, and the sale begins Saturday morning at 8:30 o'clock, August 19.

PERKINS & M'REYNOLDS

Opposite New Marion Hotel

Marion, - - - Kentucky.

Table Linens and Towels

No housekeeper can get too many of these. We are very fortunate in having a good supply of Table Linen to offer in this sale. A great many short lengths, but enough for a table cloth, at bankrupt prices.

Huck Towels.

Huck Towels---15x36, 5c

LOCAL NEWS

The Continued Story of Current Events

Lola.

T. N. Johnson and family are visiting relatives and friends near Blackford this week.

Leonard Champion has purchased T. N. Johnson's stock of groceries of Fisher & Johnson. It is now Fisher & Champion.

J. P. Williams has returned from Ballard county, he reports a nice trip.

W. F. Flannery is still very low.

Several of our people attended the Hampton camp meeting last Sunday.

Another fine rain Monday morning. A few more rains and we will make plenty of corn.

We see in the Record that the Republicans of Crittenden and Livingston counties meet at Salem, August 22, for the purpose of selecting a candidate for representative. We urge all Republicans to attend and put out one good man for our standard bearer.

R. S. and W. F. Paris are negotiating with parties to sell their patent right of the concrete post they were recently granted a patent on. The post will sell on its own merits after it is investigated and shown to all users of posts. Any style of fence can be attached. It is a money maker for the boys.

A. S. Johnson and T. E. Watson went to Marion last Monday.

R. M. Lewis and family are visiting here this week and attending the camp meeting.

Subscribe for the Record and get the latest news.

Tribune.

Crops are looking fine in this section.

Finney Corley visited his old friend, George Roberts, Sunday.

Luther Travis attended church at Piney Fork Sunday.

Geo. Sutton and Miss Maggie Walker passed through Saturday on their way to Iron Hill to visit relatives.

Howard Phillips and James Allen threshed wheat last week.

Ed Perry and wife visited Jim Allen Saturday.

Tom B. Lamb has returned from Kansas. We were all very glad to see our old friend Tom return.

Miss Mendoza Delose, of Marion, who has been visiting here returned home Monday.

A nice supper at Jim Allen's Saturday evening was enjoyed by all.

View.

William Sisco's little son has been very low with malarial fever.

The little child of Brant Brown died last week and was buried at the Wring grave yard.

Mrs. Binkley died August 12, at 9 o'clock a. m. with typhoid fever. She leaves eight children, a husband and a host of friends to mourn her loss.

Our school is progressing nicely with Leslie Biddis as teacher.

Edford Massey, of Tiline, is visiting friends and relatives here.

James Wilson is on the sick list.

The road hands are putting our roads in very good shape.

Alvie Brown and Miss Her visited their sister, Mrs. Lou Washell of Emmaus, last week.

Meeting at Fairview school house next Sunday, every body come out and hear Bro. Kingsolver preach.

Fred Davis of Salem visited his sister Mrs. Evrie Howard, last week.

Mrs. Wring has moved from Marion back near her old home.

W. G. Davis visited his daughter, Mrs. Willie Brown, near Lola, last week.

Mrs. Wring has gone to spend a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Emma Simpson.

William Sisco drove a fine lot of hogs to Crayneville last Friday.

Rosebud.

A very successful meeting has just closed.

J. P. Samuels began school at Moore Monday.

Jack Parish is visiting his son at Whiting, Mo.

Miss Gervase Walker, who has been ill, is better.

J. H. Travis, of Blackford, visited his brother here Saturday.

I. D. Nunn, of Sullivan, attended services here Saturday night.

Miss Della Grant, of Gladstone, attended prayer meeting here Saturday night.

Several of our young people attended the barbecue at Weston last Saturday.

Miss Ursie Phillips, who has been spending the summer in Marion, is visiting her parents here.

Carrsville.

F. M. Boyd and wife visited Mr. and Mrs. Shouse, at Joy, Sunday.

Cleve Fuller has typhoid fever. He is at Mr. Harvey Threlkeld's.

Several of our citizens attended the campmeeting at Hampton Sunday.

Lloyd Ward and wife, of Bardstown, Ark., are visiting relatives and friends at this place.

Genie Wright, of Hazleton, Kansas, is the guest of his uncle, M. U. Wright, and other friends.

Leonard Brewster has purchased Chas. Foster's interest in the livery barn and mill route.

Memphis being quarantined, Prof. C. C. Howard and family are still at Mr. E. B. Gwartney's.

Eugene Clark and other Tolu people passed through here Sunday en route to and from the Hampton meeting.

Ragon Rutter and wife, of Evansville, are here visiting the families of Messrs. J. H. Rutter and Wm. Holloman.

Rev. J. O. Smithson and son went to the Hampton campmeeting Sunday where Rev. Smithson expects to stay of the week.

Mrs. W. E. Dixon died last Thursday and was taken to Piney Fork cemetery in Crittenden county, where she was buried Friday. L. Barnes and wife, Coy Travis and wife, John Barnes, Kate and Frank Travis, Henry Hill and Frank Hamby were among those who attended the burial. The many friends and relatives have the sympathy of this correspondent.

Blackford.

Uncle John Nesbitt is on the sick list.

B. N. Grady, of Weston, was here Tuesday.

Elmer Gabagen, of Boley, was here Tuesday.

W. C. Hamilton is in Crittenden county.

Mrs. J. K. Tish is visiting in the country.

Drs. Reynolds and White went to Marion Monday.

Crowell-Nunn & Co. shipped a load of stock Tuesday.

Harlan Morgan and wife spent Monday in Morganfield.

W. C. Carnahan and A. T. Brown went to Paducah Friday.

Bro. King filled his regular appointment at Piney Saturday and Sunday.

Jailer Travis and family, of Marion, visited relatives here one day last week.

H. H. Mayse and H. F. Easley, of Shady Grove, delivered stock here Tuesday.

Mrs. Daughtery, of Marion, spent Monday and Tuesday with relatives at this place.

Mrs. Albert Sigler and children have just returned from a two week's visit at Providence.

J. M. Walker, of Iron Hill, and Mr. Frank Walker, of Farmersville, spent Tuesday night here.

R. Stephens has sold his restaurant and cold drinks establishment to R. Stephens and Harry Parker.

If you need a wheat drill it will pay you to see Crowell-Nunn Co. before you buy. They handle the Houser and Empire.

Mr. Wyler, of Evansville, was in town last week making arrangements to begin operations on the telephone exchange.

Farmers, fertilize your wheat! You will get a much better yield and also a higher grade of wheat. Eagle brand of fertilizer for sale by Crowell-Nunn & Co.

Fredonia.

PLANTING SALE. Beginning August 15th, we will be selling to discount our entire stock of spring and summer goods prior to our Annual Inventory. September 1, offer all goods classed as such, at cost, less freight. This is an opportunity you should not miss. Remember the dates, from August 15 to September 3, 1905.

U. B. Loyd.

Belmont.

Miss Della Guess visited her brother, Marion Guess, Saturday.

George Turley and Ed and Fred Watson visited our school last week.

Misses Edna Vinson and Amy Traylor are going to Providence to school next fall.

School began here last Monday with a large attendance. Miss Edna Vinson is the teacher.

REVENUE AGENT SPEER CONTINUES TAX SUITS

And Discourses Politics While Staying in the City.

In the county court Monday the auditor's back tax suits were continued to the September term. It was a noticeable fact that A. M. Harrison, of Lexington, the gentleman who had the suits brought, was not here because of his having been deposed on account of the graft that leaked out in his department.

However, the commonwealth was represented by Agent G. G. Speer, of Frankfort. Mr. Speer had the cases continued, his attorney being absent, and also had time to discuss politics, stating that Hager could not be defeated for the nomination for governor in 1907. He made some inquiries as to the political ambitions of Congressman O. M. James and stated it as his opinion that James made a mistake in not offering for the senate against J. C. Blackburn.

Mr. Speer had evidently not heard of the vice presidential boast given Mr. James by the Crittenden Press. But it may be that he had heard that Mr. James had invested in the Press when R. C. Wilker left here, and it may be for that reason he did not give much weight to the boom.

Nevertheless, we would rather see James governor or senator than Hager or Blackburn.

Educational Column

W. HUGH WATSON, Editor.

FELLOW TEACHERS: This column is open for the discussion of educational subjects. You, being a factor in education in Crittenden county, or any other county, are most cordially invited to contribute to its columns. Every teacher is invited to send an article, and I assure you of a hearing. In order to insure your getting in, send your article to me at Carrsville.

The race that kills is more directly race suicide than an empty cradle.

"What's the use?" is an interrogatory that often dampens enthusiasm and puts a curb on ambition. Yet it is altogether a proper question.

The voice of the school teacher is abroad in the land, but for lo, those many years he seems to have been afraid of his own voice, since legislation is so long in coming toward the profession.

Side lines necessarily weaken a specialty, but in some professions, notably that of teaching, they have a tendency of inflating the pocketbook.

The reason why there are so few strong personalities is because there are so many imitators. Let something new or strikingly original come to the light and scores of imitators swarm about. Why? Because for no other reason than a precedent is more easily followed than to strike out into an original field. Often and often our excuse for doing things is because Mr. So and so did such and such. "To think one self to be true, and it shall follow as the day the night, thou canst not then be false to any man." True when Shakespeare wrote it, true today.

The key to character is words. The most common key words are YES and NO, the smallest and the largest. Invariably the teacher is judged by these two words. No does not always mean No, nor YES with some, but the thing to do is to make them exactly what they mean. A thoughtful teacher or no in the school room will create a sentiment among the pupils and that sentiment will be anything but favorable to the teacher. How often a thoughtless is changed into a yes simply by the constant mimicry of pupils. It is a teacher's weak spot, but being such there is no excuse for its being like teacher, like pupils, like citizens, state, nation.

Who said we should be deceitful? Deceit is a false alarm and but a sham, skin deep, however, of a weakling in character who has not sufficient vim to declare himself. He assured children have eyes and they see the real nine times in ten.

"Language Training" is discussed by M. in this issue of the column. The subject is a practical one and is treated in a practical way. M. promises us a series of articles along the same line. These articles will appear from time to time during the next six months.

LANGUAGE TRAINING.

The art of speaking or writing is the most important of the school of arts, which begins at home, and continues in the primary school and it should be made the central aim of all elementary teaching.

Children enter school say at six years of age. They have at this period of child life, many ideas and more or less ability to express what they know, in words and sentences. Therefore every exercise of the first year of school life should properly end in the expression of such knowledge and when training in expression is the end sought. It is a mistake to let even a story exercise end with the telling of the story by the teacher. But rather say "that is correct, that is excellent," and leave their faces shining with delight and intense interest and a desire to try again. This training in language should make clear the ideas expressed by words, and this daily exercise of the primary school, the first year should include conversations, used in child-life, talks about commonplace things, the telling of incidents of interest to children, the recital of little poems, the singing of child songs. It is what children can tell that is evidence of real training.

The tongue before the pen in order to bring out real expression the first two years of school. In all primary training, oral method should go before the written and if the training is skillful, and taught in an attractive and interesting manner, the pupil will come up to the third year with a good degree of facility in telling what he knows. And in this, the third year, pupils should begin to write short sentences and form simple paragraphs.

M.

(To be continued.)

Mrs. Howell Entertains.

On last Thursday evening, that universally loved matron, Mrs. G. W. Howell, ably assisted by Mrs. Elma Adams, entertained over a score of her many friends at her pleasant home, two miles north of Marion, the occasion being due to Miss Carrie Hughes' birthday.

The weather being clear and favorable, the guests had all arrived by 8:00 o'clock and from that time the "fun" began by pinning the "donkey tail" on and from this as an introduction until the departure, not a moment did the merry young people lose in taking advantage of opportunity and have a "spanking good time".

Many were the games the gay hearts indulged in during the festive hours every game being especially enlivened by the participation of every guest who were not lured into dreamland by the entrancing music afforded by competent musicians.

The whole house wore a cheerful and inviting aspect, but ah, me! what a thrill animated every breast as they entered the artistically arranged dining room. The table was bedecked with dazzling lights, fragrant flowers, choicest fruits, daintiest ices and naturally the heart of man lingered near such an interesting place until time was up.

After all the good things had been eaten, all the games played, all the contests decided and the house torn topsy-turvy, the pleasure seekers made their departure declaring Mrs. Howell an extraordinary entertainer and wishing Miss Carrie might live to experience many such birthdays.

Those who enjoyed the the hospitality of Mrs. Howell besides the guest honor were Misses Lily Gilbert, Pearl Morrell, Alma Postlethwaite, Joie and Corrie Ford, Nellie Carter of Milltown, Lillie Guess and Ethel Hard, Messrs. Jas. Wilson, Clad Guess, Chas. Conger, Gilbert Worley, Chas. Gilbert, Taylor Lucas, Amie, Edosh, Albert Conger and Harry Vaughn.

A GUEST.

Minine Notes.

The mining company reported as being organized last week is now ready for its charter. The name of the company is the Morris Mining Company, and its officers are as follows: Senator Wm. J. Delose, President, Judge Jas. A. Moore, Vice President, Geo. M. Crider, Secretary and Treasurer, Geo. M. Morris, General Manager, F. E. Robertson, Superintendent of Mines. The capital stock is $100,000, divided into as many shares of the denomination of $1 each. The company has 127 acres of splendid mining land, about five miles northwest of Marion, and near the Memphis and Kionlike shafts. Besides the fluor spar vein that is already developed, it is said that a number of parallel or cross veins exist on the property which carry such ores as galena and sulphide of zinc.

The Redd mines are yielding a goodly amount of fluor spar. Constant work is going on at these mines, as is being done at a hundred other properties in the district. From 400 to 700 tons of ore are now on the surface ready to be hauled from this point.

There is considerable activity in mining circles, and a great deal of work is being done. It is our purpose to handle mining news in concrete form when our new office building is completed and we get moved to the new quarters.

HOW TO MAKE MONEY FROM THE OLD FARM

Showing how, by the exercise of a little taste and ingenuity, the abandoned farm may be changed into a paying proposition for the summer. —New York Press.

BLACKSMITH SHOP

We have opened up a Blacksmith Shop in the Jim Walker Stand near the mill, and are prepared to do all kinds of Repair Work on short notice.

HORSE SHOEING A SPECIALTY.

Give us a call when in need of anything in our line. Our prices are reasonable and we will appreciate your patronage.

GUESS & HUSKEY, Marion, Kentucky.

H. K. WOODS

JAS. H. ORME

Woods & Orme

DRUGGISTS

Our Drug Store is Now in a Tent!

We are ready to fill all orders. We have a full line of FRESH DRUGS, PAINTS, OILS, VARNISHES, TOILET ARTICLES, ETC.

Telephone No. 4, or bring your prescriptions and have them filled. Two Registered Pharmacists.

Bank Street

Marion, Ky.

A CALL!

For the Republicans and all good citizens who believe in fair elections and impartial counts, of Crittenden and Livingston counties, are hereby called to meet in mass convention at each county seat, on

Saturday, Aug. 19, 1905,

at 2 o'clock p. m., to elect delegates to the district convention which meets at Salem, Ky.,

Tuesday, Aug. 22, 1905,

to nominate a candidate for the Legislature, to be voted for at the November election, 1905. Each county is entitled to one delegate for every one hundred votes and fraction over fifty cast for Roosevelt in 1905.

H. A. HAYNES,
Chairman Crittenden County Republican Committee.
H. C. McCORD,
Chairman Livingston County Republican Committee.